7.4 For the purposes of clause 7.3, where the Supplier has access to the Customer's purchasing system (Purchasing System), the Supplier shall submit invoices to the Customer via the Purchasing System. Invoices submitted under the Purchasing System must accurately reflect and be correctly aligned to the relevant details set out in the Purchase Order (including in relation to quantity, unit price and amount). Failure to do so may result in such invoice not being due and payable by the Customer. Where the Supplier does not have access to the Purchasing System, the Supplier shall submit invoices to the Customer at the "Bill To" address on the Purchase Order.

- 7.5 In consideration of the supply of Goods and/or Services by the Supplier, the Customer shall pay the invoiced amounts within 30 days of the date of a correctly rendered invoice (provided the invoice is dated on the same day as it is despatched to the Customer) to a bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier.
- 7.6 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract are exclusive of amounts in respect of valued added tax chargeable from time to time (VAT). Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by the Supplier to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Supplier, pay to the Supplier such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Goods and/or Services at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Goods and/or Services.

The Customer may, without limiting its other rights or remedies, set off any amount owing to it by the Supplier against any amount payable by the Customer to the Supplier.
- 7.11 The payment of any invoice will not be deemed to be approval and/or acceptance by the Customer of any Goods and/or Services in respect of which such invoice is issued, and will be without prejudice to the Customer's rights and remedies under these Conditions or at law in respect of any failure or delay on the part of the Supplier to perform its obligations.

 - the Customer is given legal advice by an appropriately qualified legal adviser that the use or possession by the Customer (or any of the Customer's licensees) of any of the Goods or the receipt of any of the Services by the Customer (or the Customer's licensees) may constitute an infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights,
- then the Supplier will promptly at its own expense:
- obtain for the Customer and the Customer's licensees the right to continue using and possessing those Goods or receiving those Services; or
 - modify or replace those Goods and/or Services so as to avoid the infringement; or
 - if neither of the foregoing two options can be achieved on commercially reasonable terms within a reasonable period of time, refund to the Customer any fees paid by the Customer in respect of those Goods and/or Services.
- 8.9 For the avoidance of any doubt, the Customer's rights under clause 8.8 are in addition to, and do not affect, the indemnity set out in clause 9(d).

 - any claim made against the Customer by a third party arising out of, or in connection with, the supply of the Goods or Services, to the extent that such claim arises out of the breach, negligent performance or failure or delay in performance of the Contract by the Supplier, its employees, agents or sub-contractors;

- (c) any breach of the provisions of clause 2.6 or clause 11; and
- (d) any claim made against the Customer for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights arising out of, or in connection with, the manufacture, supply or use of the Goods, or receipt, use or supply of the Services.

- 14.6 the Goods shall be stored in a wind and watertight area from the date of manufacture until the date of actual delivery;
- 14.7 the Goods shall comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements;

- 14.8 the Goods shall be properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach the Delivery Location in good condition;

15 GENERAL

- 15.1 The Supplier shall not assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer. Where the Supplier receives the Customer's consent to sub-contract any of its obligations under the Contract to a third-party, the Supplier will remain primarily liable for the provision of the Goods and/or Services and shall be liable for the acts and omissions of its sub-contractors.
- 15.2 The Customer may at any time assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party or agent.
- 15.3 Any notice or other communication required to be given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the other party personally or sent by prepaid first-class post, recorded delivery or by commercial courier, at its registered office (if a company) or (in any other case) its principal place of business or sent by fax or email.
- 15.4 Any notice or communication shall be deemed to have been duly received if delivered personally, when left at the address referred to above or, if sent by prepaid first-class post or recorded delivery, at 9am on the second Business Day after posting or, if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed or, if sent by fax, on the next Business Day after transmission or, if sent by email, when the sender receives a non-automated reply email confirming delivery. This clause shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action.
- 15.5 A waiver of any right under the Contract is only effective if it is in writing and shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right or remedy under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor preclude or restrict its further exercise. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. Any variation, including any additional terms and conditions, to the Contract shall only be binding when agreed in writing and signed by the Customer.
- 15.6 The Customer's rights under the Contract are cumulative and shall be in addition to its rights and remedies implied by statute and common law.
- 15.7 If a court or any other competent authority finds that any provision (or part of any provision) of the Contract is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to minimum the extent required, be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Contract shall not be affected.
- 15.8 Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a partnership or joint venture of any kind between any of the parties, nor constitute any party the agent of another party for any purpose. No party shall have authority to act as agent for, or to bind, the other party in any way.
- 15.9 Subject to clause 16, the Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law, and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

- 15.10 The Supplier agrees that all other members of the Customer Group will have the same rights as the Customer under the Contract (including the benefit of any licence to the Goods and Services) and that the Supplier owes the same duties and obligations to the other members of the Customer Group as it owes to the Customer.

16 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 16.1 If any dispute arises between the parties under or in relation to this Contract the parties shall (acting reasonably and in good faith) try to resolve the dispute promptly. If the dispute is not resolved within 10 Business Days, it shall be referred to a member of each party's senior management.
- 16.2 If the parties' senior management do not resolve the dispute within 10 Business Days of referral, any of the parties involved in the dispute may refer the dispute to mediation in accordance with the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure. The mediator shall be nominated by CEDR, unless otherwise agreed (in writing) between the parties. To initiate the mediation, a party must provide a written notice (ADR Notice) to the other party to the dispute, requesting mediation. A copy of any such ADR Notice must be sent to CEDR. Each party shall bear its own costs in relation to a mediation (unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties). Subject to clause 16.5, no party may commence any court proceedings in relation to a dispute until it has attempted to settle the dispute by mediation and either the mediation has terminated or the other party has failed to participate in the mediation.
- 16.3 If for any reason the dispute is not resolved within 45 days of commencement of the mediation, the dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved in accordance with clause 15.9.
- 16.4 The Supplier's obligation to provide the Goods and perform the Services shall not be affected by the dispute resolution procedure set out in this clause 16.
- 16.5 Nothing in this clause 16 shall prejudice the right of any party to apply to court:
 - (a) for interim relief to prevent the violation by another party of any proprietary interest or any breach of another party's obligations which could cause irreparable harm to the first party; or
 - (b) to protect or preserve a right of action.

17 FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

- 17.1 If the Customer is subject to the requirements of the FOIA and the EIRs, the Supplier shall (and shall ensure that any persons who perform services for and on behalf of the Supplier under this Contract):
 - (a) provide all necessary assistance and cooperation as reasonably requested by the Customer to enable the Customer to comply with its obligations under the FOIA and EIRs;
 - (b) transfer to the Customer all requests for information relating to this Contract that it receives as soon as practicable and in any event within 2 Business Days of receipt;
 - (c) provide the Customer with a copy of all Information belonging to the Customer requested in the request for information which is in its possession or control in the form that the Customer requires within 5 Business Days (or such other period as the Customer may reasonably specify) of the Customer's request for such Information; and
 - (d) not respond directly to a request for information unless authorised in writing to do so by the Customer.
- 17.2 The Supplier acknowledges that the Customer may be required under the FOIA and EIRs to disclose Information (including Confidential Information) without consulting or obtaining consent from the Supplier. The Customer shall take reasonable steps to notify the Supplier of a request for information (in accordance with any statutory guidance issued under the FOIA to the extent that it is permissible and reasonably practical for it to do so) but (notwithstanding any other provision in this Contract) the Customer shall be responsible for determining in its absolute discretion whether any information (including any commercially sensitive information) is exempt from disclosure in accordance with the FOIA and/or the EIRs.
