The York pedagogy Digest

Deadlines

- All outstanding Combined PLOs to be submitted to the UTC working group by 30 April 2016. Please see the guidance and examples of good combined PLOs here.

- The deadline for the development of programme maps and enhancement plans is 31 July 2016.

- A summary of the overall timescale is also available online.

Pedagogy workshop, Wednesday 18 May 2016

Following on from the successful Pedagogy Symposium, a panel discussion will be running on Wednesday 18 May from 12.00-1.30pm in Vanbrugh. Colleagues will discuss how they are enhancing assessment in light of the York pedagogy:

Lunch and refreshments at 11.45am.

There will also be a networking event from 10.00-11.30am for new administrative contacts and postdoctoral students seconded to the project.

If you are interested, please use our online booking form to sign up.

Lunchtime Review Sessions

The Programme Leaders team are offering three lunchtime review sessions for colleagues involved in implementing the Pedagogy, to share ideas and to work together on drafts of programme maps and enhancement plans. The sessions will take place on:

- Monday 9th May, 12-1pm
- Monday 6th June, 12-1pm
- Monday 4th July, 12-1pm

Lunch will be provided at each session. For more information and to book a place, please get in touch with the team at academic-practice@york.ac.uk.

Worth reading

Making feedback on assignments effective: principles and guidance for tutors. Professor Graham Gibbs, University of Winchester.

Assessment patterns that fail, and that work. TESTA, University of Winchester.

Frequently Asked Questions

You can find answers to some of the key questions that have been asked about the implementation of York pedagogy, here.

280416