My AIC internship has had a deep impact on my personal and professional development as I’ve felt more confident in my professional abilities and more confident personally in what makes me happy and that I can survive living in a different place.

- Lydia B., Vancouver Global Intern

Constantly ranked one of the world’s most livable cities, Vancouver is a bustling city on Canada’s west coast. Boasting a milder climate than the rest of Canada, the city attracts millions each year to enjoy the beautiful scenery, outdoor activities, and green lifestyle.

Vancouverites are proud of their work-life balance, and the city offers students a relaxed work atmosphere to develop their career skills. Vancouver has an energetic economy with extensive opportunities for international students.
