I have become much more confident in my speaking abilities, both in terms of my accuracy in French and my charisma. I have had new experiences that have changed my attitude towards travel and spending time abroad that I would not have had if I had stayed in York.

My advice to students considering a study abroad experience would be to put any concerns aside and go for it. Yes, it can be daunting and there will most certainly be challenges to overcome, but you will be better off for it. The benefits of going far outweigh the difficulties.
