

Josselin

University of Western Australia, Australia

It was the best year of my life; it was such an amazing year. I gained so many experiences such as tutoring the sudanese refugee community, studying the modules I did really challenged me personally as well as academically.

