

CAREERS EVENT 17.01.17

Careers with children, young people
and adult learners

Tuesday 17 January 2017, 16.30–18.30pm, Exhibition Centre

FIND OUT IF THESE CAREERS COULD BE FOR YOU...

---

Shape your future

Careers with children, young people

Get into Teaching, National College for Teaching and Leadership

If you're aiming for a degree to be proud of, why not use it to start training for a career you can be proud of too?

More people with a 1st or 2:1 degree than ever before are training to be teachers.

- There's a teacher training option to suit you.
- You could receive a substantial tax-free bursary while you train.
- Good teachers are in demand. There are excellent prospects for employment and career progression.

Visit the Department for Education's Get Into Teaching stand to find out more.

getintoteaching.education.gov.uk

Teaching, Secondary PGCE, Paula Mountford, Director of Initial Teacher Training, and Catherine Shawyer, Deputy Director of Initial Teacher Training, University of York

Paula and Catherine are members of the PGCE Team at the University of York. They and colleagues (at the University and across a diverse partnership of schools, including Pathfinder Teaching School Alliance and Yorkshire TSA) provide training for people wishing to become teachers in secondary schools. The teacher training programme at York is highly regarded and many ex-trainees progress rapidly to leadership positions in schools. Talk to PGCE colleagues, including current trainee teachers, if you are interested in becoming an effective and inspirational new teacher (secondary phase) of Biology, Chemistry, English, History, Mathematics, Physics or Modern Foreign Languages.

york.ac.uk/education/pgce

Teaching, School Direct, Jake Capper, Head of Teaching School, The Pathfinder Teaching School Alliance

Jake Capper is the head of the Pathfinder Teaching School Alliance which is based at Archbishop Holgate's CofE Academy in York. He has been a secondary school teacher for ten years and part of his role in the teaching school is responsibility for the recruitment and training of teachers through the schools direct/PGCE route. Speak to Jake if you are considering a career in teaching or would like to know a bit more about the various routes into the profession.

pathfinder-education.co.uk

Teaching, David Holdsworth, Director of Teacher Training, Yorkshire Teaching School Alliance

David Holdsworth oversees the School Direct PGCE teacher training programmes for the Yorkshire Teaching Alliance. The YTSAs a partnership of Yorkshire secondary schools working alongside the top Universities in the region, including The University of York. Together they provide an outstanding training programme for prospective teachers, offering high quality placements and excellent support and guidance. Talk to David or any of the YTSAs team today about applying to become a teacher.

yorkshiretsa.co.uk

Teaching, Tom Young, Graduate Recruitment, Teach First

Young people in low-income communities need leaders to bring out the best in them. The Teach First Leadership Development Programme combines teacher training and a fully funded PGCE with one-to-one coaching, enabling you to develop leadership qualities you can take forward into any career. Tom is the Teach First York recruiter, talk to him to find out about how to apply to Teach First and their variety of internships available to first and second year students. Apply now at graduates.teachfirst.org.uk and help end educational inequality.

Teaching, Joshua Dorr and Andrew Robinson, Premier Pathways

Premier Pathways offers a successful future for graduates wanting a meaningful career, a top salary, and continuing progression with first class support. This fully paid, in-school programme is supported by leading educational bodies and universities. No previous experience is required and participants will finish as confident, fully qualified teachers.

premierpathways.co.uk/graduates

Teaching, Further Education, York College

York College: Ofsted Outstanding College of Further and Higher Education. Education and Training programmes include: PGCE, Certificate in Education, Level 3 Award & Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training. Full and part-time options available. Visit us at www.yorkcollege.ac.uk or call 01904 770400 for more information.

Teaching, Further Education, Janet Taylor, Education Advisor, FE Advice

Janet Taylor is an education advisor with FE Advice, the best source of information and advice about working in the FE and Skills sector, which includes FE Colleges, work based learning and independent training providers, adult and community learning, and education in the justice sector (prison education). Janet is an expert in this field and has substantial experience of teaching in the FE sector and of teacher training for FE. Talk to Janet about the various pathways into FE, what it is like, including how it differs from working in schools, and where work in FE might lead.

feadvice.org.uk

Educational Psychology, Alison Walker, Trainee Educational Psychologist, City of York Council

The principal clients of the Educational Psychology Service are children and young people. The aim of the Educational Psychology Service is to promote the well-being, personal development and education of children through the application of psychology in providing consultation, assessment, advice, and interventions. Alison works with children and young people aged 0 to 25, their parents and carers and a wide range of other professionals. Before training as an Educational Psychologist, Alison worked in a primary school as a teaching assistant and Early Years Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator (SENCo). She has a BSc honours degree in Psychology from the University of York.

york.gov.uk/info/20166/special\_educational\_needs\_and\_disabilities/529/educational\_psychology

and adult learners

Vanessa Emslie, Widening Participation Officer, University of York

Vanessa works in the Student Recruitment and Admissions Department at the University of York. She works with young people in targeted primary and secondary schools, where few pupils progress onto higher education. She runs residential, workshops and events to help raise the aspirations of young people, build their confidence and provide them with information, advice and guidance on pathways to HE. Vanessa has supported young people in various job roles over the past ten years. Talk to her to find out more about her current role at the University of York and her past roles working with young people.

york.ac.uk/study/undergraduate/outreach

Early Years, Menna Godfrey, Owner and Manager, Quakers Extended Hours Playgroup

Menna began her professional career as a Physics Teacher, and taught until she had her own family. She became fascinated with the way that young children learn and develop and began a childminding business. The business outgrew her home and she started Quakers playgroup with a colleague. Menna completed her Early Years Professional Status (now Early Years Teacher Status) and has been a mentor and tutor for Trainees completing the status. Talk to Menna to find out more about working with young children and the PhD research she is currently undertaking.

getintoteaching.education.gov.uk/explore-my-options/become-an-early-years-teacher

Prison Education, Charlotte Harker, OCLASS Manager, HMP/YOI Askham Grange, York

Charlotte Harker is the OCLASS (Offender Learning & Skills Service) Manager at HMP/YOI Askham Grange, an Open Women's Prison south-west of York. She is contracted by Novus to deliver a wide range of courses for women who are getting ready to re-settle into the community on release and hopefully gain employment. Talk to her to find out about the courses on offer and to discover if it is an area of employment you would be interested in.

gov.uk/life-in-prison/education-and-work-in-prison

Recruitment and Training, Yorkshire Education

Yorkshire Education is an education recruitment agency providing secondary, primary and SEN schools with temporary supply teaching and permanent staffing solutions. They are based in York and work closely with schools in York and across the Hull, Leeds, Sheffield and North Yorkshire areas. Whether you are looking for a teaching post or school experience prior to training, talk to them.

yorkshire-education.co.uk

Recruitment and Training, Teaching Personnel

Teaching Personnel are recruiting Education students to work as Learning Mentors, Behaviour Mentors, Graduate Tutors for Intervention and LAC as well as many more positions. We offer short term roles, long term roles and permanent positions in primary, secondary and SEN schools/settings. As the largest education recruiter in the country, we have 69 branches and work with nearly 6,000 schools across a variety of locations; this means there will be jobs to suit everyone. Offering the most up to date CPD and excellent pay rates, shows we invest in our candidates. Talk to them today!

email: info@teachingpersonnel.com teachingpersonnel.com

Youthwork, Rebecca Gouhar, Senior Staffing Associate, The Challenge

Rebecca recruits creative practitioners for their NCS programme in Yorkshire. Rebecca originally was a support worker, working seasonally with NCS and became a youth worker, a behavioural advisor on NCS, a line manager and offered a full time position. If you are interested in paid seasonal work in youth work, teaching workshops, line managing or an extended position in to organise and deliver the NCS, come and have a chat.

ncsthechallenge.org/jobs

English Language Teaching, CELT, Department of Education, University of York

Would you like to travel to exotic places and earn your living while there? Are you looking for a practical introduction to the world of English Language Teaching? CELT are currently offering courses leading to the Trinity CERT TESOL qualification. This qualification is recognised world-wide by English-Language teaching operations, as an entry into the teaching profession. The course runs intensively over five weeks in either June or September, or twice a week between January and May. Please see the website for more information.

york.ac.uk/celt/certtesol

Education Research, Jonathan Haslam, Deputy Director Institute for Effective Education (IEE) and Nicola Mann, Publications and Marketing Officer, Institute for Effective Education (IEE)

Based at the University of York, the IEE is an independent charity working to build support for evidence-based education. The vision of the IEE is to improve teaching and learning for all children and young people. By working closely with schools to support the development and use of research evidence to inform and improve education outcomes the IEE provides useful information on education research that may be of interest to students considering a career in education.

the-iee.org.uk

Schools, Pastoral Support, Hannah Best, Sixth Form Pastoral Leader, All Saints RC School, and Rachael Gilroy, Senior Pastoral Leader, All Saints RC School

The role of a Pastoral Leader is a non-teaching supportive role which is incredibly dynamic and changes depending on the needs of the students. Talk to them to find out about the nature of support they offer from day to day in a school environment and the demands of the role. You can also talk to them to find out how they got involved and the skills that would be valuable if you're interested in becoming a Pastoral Leader.

Mentoring, Mariah Barrie, Play and Support Worker, The Island

Mariah Barrie is the Play and Support Worker at The Island; offering support to troubled and vulnerable young people in York. The Island links young people with volunteer mentors with whom they meet on a weekly basis. The Island offers a range of volunteering opportunities from mentoring to helping out in a group environment. Talk to Mariah to find out how you can get involved.

theislandyork.org

Careers with children, young people and adult learners

Counselling/Mental Health, Stuart Jackson-Bayles – Open Door Practitioner/Occupational Therapist, and Michelle Reynolds, Open Door Practitioner, Open Door and Disability Team, University of York

Stuart works with students experiencing Psychological or Mental Health difficulties with an emphasis on supporting self-management and engagement in academic study. Stuart has previously worked within the NHS and with young people experiencing a first episode of Psychosis. Talk to Stuart to find out more about working within Psychological and Mental Health services.

Michelle has been in the role of Open Door Practitioner since August 2016. Her background is in Counselling and Psychotherapy, and she has gained varied experience including working with students, offenders and within a NHS setting. Her work as a Practitioner in the multidisciplinary Open Door team involves a mixture of initial assessments and counselling.

york.ac.uk/students/health/help

Volunteering, Robert Olley, Training Coordinator, SNAPPY

Robert Olley is a Training Coordinator for staff and volunteers at SNAPPY, a charity that provides play and social activities for children and young adults with disabilities. SNAPPY's volunteer programme has a superb track record in giving York students the opportunity to gain valuable experience working in the disability sector. Talk to Robert to learn about his role at SNAPPY, and the rewarding and challenging volunteering opportunities that SNAPPY offers to students in York.

snappyyork.co.uk

Volunteering, Sarah Leith, Volunteering Project Officer, Careers, University of York

Sarah is representing volunteering in Careers, with information about the projects and placements available with York Students in Communities and York Students in Schools. Both schemes offer students the chance to volunteer with schools and community partners across York, including opportunities to work with young people in the city and the chance to volunteer in schools during an academic term.

york.ac.uk/careers/volunteering

Theatre Education, Julian Ollive, Education Associate, York Theatre Royal

Julian co-ordinates and co-facilitates YTR's school partnership programmes and writing education content for YTR productions. He is also a youth theatre practitioner and directs work with professional and non-professional actors in a variety of settings. If you are interested in finding out more about working in theatre and the pathways to those jobs, talk to Julian and follow @CreativesYTR on Twitter.

yorktheatreroyal.co.uk

Heritage Education, Sarah Mortimer, Assistant Curator of Social History Learning (Formal), York Museums Trust, and Joan Stephenson, Learning Facilitator, York Museums Trust

York Museums Trust cares for collections covering an array of subjects, from archaeology housed at the Yorkshire Museum to social history at the Castle Museum and fine art at the Art Gallery. Sarah works at the Castle Museum and Joan is based across all sites, both as part of the Learning Team. It is their objective to share and interpret the collections to as wide an audience as possible. They work with schools, colleges and universities running a range of formal learning activities; Joan is also involved with helping to run informal sessions and events for adults, children and families during the school holidays. Talk to them to find out more about the wide variety of work they do and how you can get involved with the Trust yourself.

yorkmuseumtrust.org.uk

Heritage Education, Matthew Lester, Education Visits Officer North, English Heritage

Matthew's main responsibility is managing the education offer at the 40 property sites in the Northern Territory, which includes Clifford's Tower, Whitby Abbey and Hadrian's Wall. He was educated in University College Cork Ireland (BA in Archaeology and History, MA in Human Osteoarchaeology and Postgraduate Diploma in Education) and has previously worked for York Archaeological Trust. English Heritage offers a range of volunteering opportunities and training courses and welcomes students for work experience. Talk to Matthew to find out how you could get involved.

english-heritage.org.uk

Heritage Education, Allison Freeman, Activities Officer, York Army Museum

Allison's role involves designing and delivering informal and formal learning activities for families, schools and adults as well as the day to day running of the museum. Talk to her to find out more about working in this role. The York Army Museum offers a range of volunteering opportunities and welcomes students for work experience.

yorkarmymuseum.co.uk

Teaching/Recruitment Frank Caldow, Secondary Education Consultant and Alex Mansbridge, Primary Education Consultant, anzuk*

Education

anzuk specialises in education recruitment in the UK, Australia and Canada. Frank manages secondary teachers and schools in the South West of London and previously taught Business Studies. He has a passion for sport and coaches a local Australian Rules Football team. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Sports Management, a Diploma of Education and a level 2 coaching accreditation and plans to stay in London for the long term. Alex specialises in primary education and is the person to chat to if you are interested in teaching in other parts of the UK or abroad.

anzuk.education

Shape your future

york.ac.uk/careers

 UoYCareers

 facebook.com/yorkcareers

Next event

25 January 17

