YOUR CAREER JOURNEY
YOUR FUTURE, YORK FUTURES york.ac.uk/york-futures

2021/22  click the coloured links to find out more

POSTGRADUATE TAUGHT

Make the most of support and resources available to plan your nextsteps and make good quality applications.

*Part-time learners, or those not starting their studies in Autumn Term, should still follow the three stages of the journey but adjust the timings to fit the length of your programme.

Autumn Term*

Join the Graduate Student Association (GSA) community. Attend Welcome Week activities to explore opportunities.

Log in to Handshake for job alerts and events and set up your profile. Research your career options

Research the impact of the pandemic on the job market. Careers and Placements is updating their FAQs regularly.

Attend virtual events and workshops to meet with employers and explore opportunities.

Look out for the Life After a Masters programme including the Christmas Bitesize event and recorded resources for Masters students.

Key:
- Research your options
- Make strong applications and prepare for the recruitment processes
- Academic and personal development
International students studying in York: Explore working in the UK and visa requirements.

Research recruitment processes and understand how employers are adapting to online assessment. Practise with our resources.

Market yourself! Update your CV and LinkedIn profile and start networking online.

Check closing dates and apply for UK graduate recruitment schemes. Apply for PhD opportunities or further study after your programme.

Engage with the activities on offer from the British Chamber of Commerce of China. [Link to follow]

Explore academic and personal development opportunities through the Academic Skills Community (ASC).

Build work experience through University volunteering and enterprise.

Consider part time work or an internship. Check with your supervisor about time commitment.

International students studying in York: Check your BRP card for how many hours you can work while studying.

Try York Strengths Online to explore your personal strengths and consider these in relation to your career plans and applications.
Explore York Award and understand what you need to do to be able to apply at the end of your degree.

Stay supported – Use Togetherall and University wellbeing resources.

Key:
- Research your options
- Make strong applications and prepare for the recruitment processes
- Academic and personal development

Spring Term*

Book a careers advice appointment to talk through your next steps.

Explore enterprise, freelance and portfolio ways of working.

Get a mentor from York Profiles & Mentors – maybe someone from the country or sector you want to work in?

Listen to our podcast, What Do You Actually Do?! , to find out what different careers are actually like.

Engage with careers events and workshops.

Apply for GSA Community Fund to practise project development skills.

Key:
- Research your options
- Make strong applications and prepare for the recruitment processes
- Academic and personal development
Summer Term to Completion*

Complete the Next Steps Planner to assess where you might need careers support.

Check out Working in Research resources.

Global Careers – take a look at the international picture.

International students studying in York: Explore visa options if wishing to stay in the UK.

Book a careers advice appointment to talk through your next steps.

Continue to get support from Careers and Placements after you’ve completed your programme.

Use the Careers and Placements website, self-help resources (CVs and interviews) and 1-1 support.

Update your CV and LinkedIn profile to apply for graduate and summer opportunities.
Apply for graduate jobs or further study after your programme.

Talk to your supervisor – consider if you have time to gain additional experience this summer.

Apply for York Award, a certificate of the University that recognises personal and professional development.

Check the events programme for careers workshops during the summer vacation.

Complete York Strengths Online if not done so already and attend a Development Day.

After graduation participate in York Global Alumni Association activities and events - check here for groups in the UK and around the world.
By the end of your Taught Masters programme you’ll

Have updated your CV and tailored it to your chosen work/study area.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/applications

Have used the careers website to understand your options.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/ideas

Have developed a better understanding of your strengths, skills and experience through York Strengthsand York Award.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/york-strengthsand
york.ac.uk/careers/yorkaward

Be able to articulate what skills, experience and knowledge you have gained through postgraduate study.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/postgraduate

Have an understanding of recruitment processes and how to succeed in applications, interviews and assessment centres.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/graduate-jobs and york.ac.uk/students/work-volunteering-careers/look-for-work/international-work

Know where to find 1-1 support if you need help to develop or progress your career plans.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/advice

Get inspiration from other York graduates.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/profiles