We offer courses that are specific to the degree you want to study. They are designed to help you improve your language, communication and study skills and prepare for a degree at York.

The main course specialisms are:
- Arts and Humanities
- Social Sciences
- Sciences, Engineering and Maths
- We also offer subject-specific courses for postgraduate Management degrees, and postgraduate Language Teaching.

Once you have accepted your offer to study at York, you will be informed as to which pre-sessional course you can apply for via You@York.

Progression
Please note that your progression onto an academic course depends on successful completion of the pre-sessional course.

Accommodation
We guarantee a room for students on or near to campus for the duration of the pre-sessional course over the summer. Accommodation will be allocated and confirmed by email about a month before the course start date.

Welcome and social programme
To help students get settled in we offer a series of welcome and orientation events including social activities within the department and guidance through the enrolment process and compliance checks.
