

The YorActive Trail is a 5km route stretching from the York Sport Centre on Heslington West to the York Sport Village on Heslington East. The route will encompass various fun and interactive fitness equipment stations. The trail aims to encourage as many people to get active by walking, running or biking the route. So, whichever method you choose, have a fantastic time getting active on YorActive Trail!

YUFUNO UNIVERSITY of York

