Nicholson's Pubs

An historic collection of iconic pubs to discover, offering warm inviting hospitality.

If you share our passion for real ale, great food and a friendly welcome, you'll feel right at home at any of these four traditional city centre pubs. Come down to Nicholson's and enjoy the timeless atmosphere that's been loved by groups of friends, colleagues and shoppers since our first pub opened in 1873.

Since the first was opened by the Nicholson brothers in 1873, our alehouses have matured into a collection of rare gems rich with heritage and each with its own compelling story to tell. All four pubs are situated within the city walls and are less than five minutes walk from York Minster.

You'll find all the best traditions of the great British pub residing within our historic walls: superb range of carefully managed cask conditioned ales from breweries far and wide, freshly cooked pub food, fine wines and a first-class service in a warm and vibrant atmosphere, all set in beautiful, distinctive buildings.

Food served from 10am to 10pm, children's menus available, outstanding Sunday lunches: British hospitality at its best!

THE OLD WHITE SWAN map ref. E3

80 Goodramgate. Tel: 01904 540911

Made up of a collection of at least nine buildings, each with their own colourful histories, the Old White Swan now comprises three bars situated around a stunning courtyard. The main part of the hostelry dates from the 16th century and claims to be one of York's oldest pubs. It is said to be haunted by ghostly figures seen warming themselves by one of the fireplaces! Cosy fires and warm drinks on cold days

HARKERS map ref. D3

1 St Helens Square. Tel: 01904 672795

A symbol of grand Georgian architecture, Harkers was built in 1824 on the Roman site of the Praetorian Gate – the main entrance to the City of York or Eboracum as the city was then known. Part of the building's original structure is exposed in the basement.

THE PUNCH BOWL map ref. D3

7 Stonegate. Tel: 01904 655147

The Punch Bowl has been situated on Stonegate, one of the country's oldest and most beautiful streets, for over 400 years and has survived two major fires. The pub was connected with the reforming Whig Party and is believed to have at least two ghostly regulars. One is said to be the spirit of a young girl and the other that of a 19th century landlord who perished in one of the fires.

The Cross Keys map ref. E3

34 Goodramgate. Tel: 01904 655082

The Cross Keys is a snug and familiar Georgian pub probably dating back to the late 1800's and is located in the main central shopping street of Goodramgate and within a stone's throw of York Minster. As the latest edition to Nicholson's in York the pub boasts Minster views and benefits from an external terrace with heaters and canopy.
